

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
For The District of Delaware

James Hall,
v. Plaintiff

David Holman, Lawrence McGuigan,
Clyde D. Sagers, Defendants

C.A. No. ~~06-1328~~ 04-1328
GMS

Jury Trial of twelve
Demanded

Motion for Appointment of Counsel BD scanned

Pursuant to the Appropriate Rule of Civil procedures and all Case Law authorities.

Come NOW the plaintiff James E Hall And moves this Honorable Court to grant his motion Appointing him counsel for purposes of Discovery Material Motives and that the plaintiff Deposes and Swears as Follows:

- 1) Plaintiff cannot afford counsel
- 2) Plaintiff has made several attempts to obtain counsel
- 3) Plaintiff has caused several copies of appointment of counsel to the Honorable Court the Honorable Court felt that at the time plaintiff motioned the Court for Appointment of Counsel

The court felt that his motion was premature

- 4) The Honorable court stated that it shall entertain a renewed motion for appointment of counsel when the time warranted. Plaintiff respectfully asks that the time be now.
- 5) plaintiff has made mistakes which were almost fatal to his claim. a lawyer at this stage of the litigation would greatly improve the odds and make even the playing field. a lawyer would greatly improve plaintiff motions to the court, address incoming motions from defendant counsel, allow a broad and level cross examination of professional witnesses [i.e., Doctors, Lawyers, Supervisor-officials Ect.]
- 6) in his motion for Summary Judgment the Plaintiff asked this Honorable court to grant him counsel for the limited purpose of settlement talks and trial.
- 7) a counsel for the plaintiff at this time would greatly improve his chances of presenting evidence to the court and defeating evidence presented by opposition.
- 8) matters have improved beyond the initial stages of this litigation. The Plaintiff has no experience in pre-trial motions, settlement talks, Deposition Ect. a lawyer at this stage his expertise would better suit Brief Answering Timelines.

Conclusion

Plaintiff has brought forth a meritorious legally non-frivolous claim against Defendants and respectfully Ask this Court to appoint him Counsel in the instant case for purposes of Deposition, Discovery matter (i.e.; Brief answering) and Leveling the playing field in the interest of fairness.

Wherefore, plaintiff Prays this Honorable Court grant his motion appointing him Counsel to represent him in the instant case in the interest of fairness and the interest of justice.
